DETAILED ACTION

Rejoinder of claim 3

1. The previously withdrawn claim 3 has now been rejoined in the application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-17 and 23-25 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The prior art does not show or teach a power generating and propelling system of a marine vessel having an IC engine, a power transmission device, an electric power generating equipment, and an electric motor, wherein:

- the power generating equipment is provided between the engine and the transmission device, the motor is disposed at an area of the transmission device, and wherein the transmission device is selectively driven by the engine independently, by the motor independently, or by the engine and motor collectively (as set forth in claim 1), OR
- the transmission device having a substantially vertical transmission shaft and an input shaft substantially coaxially connected to a substantially horizontal crankshaft of the engine; a propeller shaft having a height different from the input shaft, the transmission device transmitting rotational force of the input shaft to the propeller shaft, the generating equipment interposed between the engine and the transmission device, the motor driven by electric power generated from the generating equipment, wherein the motor has an output shaft substantially coaxially connected to the transmission shaft (as set forth in claim 10).
